

Iowa has one of the largest populations of older Americans in the country. Is your practice ready to provide counsel as “Baby Boomers” seek help planning for the care of their parents, with an eye on their own future needs as well?

Elder Law: Dealing With Fears, Challenges, and Solutions

Thursday
February 17, 2005
9:00 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.

An Iowa Legal Aid Volunteer Lawyers
Project Seminar at 13 Sites over the Iowa
Communications Network. See registration form for site locations.

Help assuage clients' fears about the challenges of aging with information about the services available, and solutions for preserving independent functioning to the maximum extent possible. Attend this seminar to learn about critical issues with respect to paying for medical care, nursing home care, and in-home services; prevention of financial abuse; planning for shared or substitute decision-making; and dealing with ethical problems you may confront.
