Put Your Experience to Work

Fact: Demographic changes will result in labor shortages for the next twenty years. There will not be enough new workers to meet anticipated job growth.

Fact: Senior workers can earn additional income and solve some of those labor problems by continuing to work beyond traditional retirement years.

Fact: Senior workers have experience and qualities highly valued by employers.

Fact: Catholic Community Services specializes in recruiting, assessing, and referring senior workers to the right jobs.

Stay Ahead of the Curve !

- Americans are living longer, healthier lives.
- We are re-evaluating the way we think about aging.
- We now regard retirement as a time of increased options, not a departure from the workforce.
- Knowledgeable employers will seek out time-tested workers for a competitive advantage.

What Employers Say About Mature Workers

"My older employees are more responsible and have a better work ethic."

"Senior workers take ownership of their jobs."

"They know how to deal with my customers."

"They come to work on time."
