

WASCLA Summit V
At Washington State University - Riverpoint, in Spokane, WA
“Ensuring Language Access in the 21st Century: Striving for Excellence”

OREGON APPROVED CREDITS

By attendance at the sessions listed below, an Oregon Certified Interpreter can earn up to 8.5 CE credits which can be applied toward certification renewal requirements:

Friday, October 16, 2009	12:30 PM - 1:45 PM Language Access in the Educational Setting	1 general continuing education credit
Friday, October 16, 2009	2:30 PM - 3:30 PM The Tools and Technology of Language Access	1 general continuing education credit
Friday, October 16, 2009	3:30 PM - 5:00 PM Forewarned is Forearmed! Interpreting Sayings and Expressions	1.5 general continuing education credits
Saturday, October 17, 2009	9:00 AM - 10:30 AM Language Access and Domestic Violence	1.5 general continuing education credits
Saturday, October 17, 2009	10:45 AM - 12:15 PM Language Access and Mental Health Settings	1.5 general continuing education credits
Saturday, October 17, 2009	1:30 PM - 3:30 PM Ethics in the Courtroom: Interpreter, Attorney, and Judge's Ethics Considerations when Litigants are LEP	2 general continuing education credits