Kiwanis Covers Predatory Lending Today At Meeting

HARRISONBURG — The Kiwanis Club of Harrisonburg will meet at 11:30 a.m. today at Traditions Restaurant, 625 Mount Clinton Pike, in Harrisonburg.

A lunch buffet will open at 11:30, with the meeting's program starting at noon.

Grant Penrod, an attorney with Hoover Penrod PLC, and John Whitfield, executive director of Blue Ridge Legal Services, will speak on "Predatory Lending in Virginia."

Penrod and Whitfield will talk first about the history of usury and predatory lending in Virginia, and will follow with a discussion about payday lending in particular, including a case currently before the Virginia Supreme Court.

For more information on Tuesday's meeting or the Kiwanis Club, contact Barbara Emswiler at 540-564-8810.
