V. DIVORCE

IT IS ORDERED that the Petitioner and the Respondent are divorced.

VI. PROPERTY AND DEBTS

NOTE: Texas is a community property state. This means that any new property or debt that either party obtains from the minute they are married until the minute the judge grants the divorce, is community property, even if the property or debt is only in one spouse's name.

All community property and debt should be included in the Final Decree of Divorce. There are only a few exceptions to the law of community property. If either party receives a gift, an inheritance, or money from a lawsuit that does not compensate for lost wages, it is separate property. It is a good idea to confirm separate property obtained during the marriage as that individual's separate property in the Final Decree of Divorce. More information about community and separate property can be found in the Texas Family Code, chapters 3,4, and 5.

The Court makes the following orders regarding the parties' community and separate property:
